Heritage Girls School hosted their second season of the National Cooking Competition on the 23rd of January.

Renowned chefs like Vicky Ratnani , Salil Fadnis and Akshraj Jodha were invited to judge the competition.

Girls between the age of 9-16 from all over the country came to participate in this competition where there were 4 categories - Salads, Snacks, Curry and Desserts.

The winners were Santosh Sirvi for Salads, Muskan for Snacks, Rhea Kullar for Curry and Khushi Kochar for Dessert.

It was an exciting competition where every participant presented their best dish and the winners took away a cash prize of 11,000 and a certificate as well books and vouchers.

Everyone was looking forward for the next year.
